THE BULLETIN.

Publication Office, Bulletin Building
Washington Avenue.

Wood for $1 per load at the box factory.
10-5-3m.

HERE—Lieutenant-Governor Dougherty was in town yesterday.

ANSWER.—The new saloon in River's building is having a good run of custom already.

LOTS OF IT.—Thirty-five hundred barrels of pork arrived by the Illinois Central yesterday, all consigned to one man at New Orleans.

JOHN S. DUNHAM'S yeast powder for purity and strength is unequalled. Try it and you will use no other.
11-21-47.

COLD.—The weather is decidedly uncomfortable. The winter has made an earlier appearance in Cairo this season than for many years.

A DEAD BEAT.—A noted dead beat and hummer, who hails from Cincinnati, and calls himself Capt. Gordon, was sent on the chain gang for thirty days, yesterday.

THANKS.—We are indebted to Jack Winter for a can of the finest kind of oysters. Jack has now a great "run" upon his bank for oysters, fish and game. He keeps the best.

TEMPERANCE LECTURE.—Father O'Brien, an eloquent Catholic priest, will lecture on temperance in St. Patrick's church, Sunday evening next, for the benefit of the proposed new Catholic church.

SIDEWALKS.—The chain gang has been doing good service in repairing sidewalks on Eighth street. It is a fact that the sidewalks in this city are in a better condition than they have been within the last five years.

COUNTERFEITERS.—Greenback counterfeiters have been working up this city. A $50 bill was passed Monday night on one of our Commercial Avenue merchants, and another on the proprietor of a downtown establishment.

KENTUCKY LIBRARY ASSOCIATION.—A limited number of Gift Concert tickets for the Kentucky Library Association can be obtained of W. B. Rockwell & Co., on Commercial Avenue. The sale will continue until the 25th inst. 11-10-47

THAT CUPOLA.—The cupola of the Arab engine house is a wonder, if not a mystery. It is a combination of Mansard and Chinese, with a little of the Turkish element mixed in. The combination is attractive if not beautiful.

THE LOST FOUND.—Hiram Hill, who shipped his diving apparatus from Cincinnati to Cairo on the steamer Empire, lost it when that boat was sunk near Shawneetown, but he has recovered it and is now in Cairo ready for jobs.

A regular communication of Delta Lodge No. 558, P. and A. M., will be held in Masonic Hall this (Thursday) evening, Nov. 21st, 1872, A. L. 5672. Business of special importance to be transacted. Visiting brethren cordially invited to attend.
JAS. A. PHILLIS, Sec'y.

FATTEN THEM.—We are requested by Messrs. Grant and Palmer to be thankful on the 28th inst. Let us fatten our turkeys that we may comply with this request in a proper manner. A full-stomached Christian is always more thankful than a hungry one.

JEWELRY.—For the fall trade and holiday presents. We have just got in the finest stock of solid silver, plated and gold goods ever brought to this city. Gold, silver and ivory head cases, and many articles attractive and beautiful. Call and see and judge for yourselves. We can show you fine goods and low prices.
TABER BROS.

FOR MURDER.—Williams, the colored desperado who murdered Mullen at Mound City over a year ago, and who was sentenced to be hung but obtained a new trial, is now being tried at Mound City. Some difficulty was experienced in obtaining a jury. At last advice, seven white jurors and one colored juror had been obtained. This is the first instance of a negro serving on a jury in Southern Illinois.

SHOCKED.—The delicate nerves of our sensitive contemporary of the "Sun" have been shocked by our remarks about Christmas turkeys. "We do not remember of seeing or reading a more irrelevant paragraph anywhere," blandly remarks the religious fellow of the "Sun." We are so sorry, and would like to hire him at a reasonable price to pray for us by the week. We need it, but he does not know a more effective cheap prayer-maker than he.

HOME AGAIN.—Mr. Goldstone, of the firm of Goldstone & Rosenwasser, has returned home from New York, where he has been making large purchases of winter dry goods, clothing, etc. Luckily, Mr. Goldstone had completed all his purchases before the Boston fire, and therefore he has the late advance in prices. Messrs. Goldstone & Rosenwasser can, consequently, sell at prices exceedingly below those now current in this market. They ask the public to call and inspect their goods and ascertain their prices, being satisfied that no one will go away from the store, leaving behind them the bargains this firm are prepared to offer.

The Bulletin talks of Potter's "assistant" political editor, who persists in declaring that the Democratic party is not dead. Now, John, that's too bad on Mose, who has stood by you through thick and thin for these many long and weary, not to say delightful, years.—(Cairo Sun).

We did not say anything about Mr. Harrell and did not hint at him. We would not insult him by charging him with the authorship of the Journal's remarks on Oberly's "Pop." The "Sun" is stupid. Potter's assistant is a comely, able, highly respectable gentleman of remarkable ability of a peculiar kind, but what's his name or where his home we dare care to tell.

FOR THE SELECT COUNCIL.—The "Sun"

has nominated for the select council Messrs. Taylor, Wood and Phillips, all able and clever gentlemen. If we are to have a select council any longer, we don't know any objection we have to urge against either of the gentlemen suggested; but we are drifting towards the belief that the select council is an unnecessary luxury. It was a necessity, possibly, when it was created, but at this time, it is neither a necessity nor an ornament—it is a useless body. Our impulse is to declare in favor of the abolition of this "House of Lords," and, in order, among other desirable things, that this consummation may be obtained, we are inclined to advocate the adoption of the state law providing for the incorporation of cities and villages, in place of our present charter.

COUNTY COURT.—Probate matter. Judge Bross presiding, J. G. Lynch, county clerk. Henry D. Thompson, report approved and ordered on record.

In the matter of George Curly, deed, report approved and ordered that the administrator give due notice to the heirs that he will apply for a discharge as administrator. If no heirs make their appearance, he is to pay over to the county all moneys in his hands. In the matter of the guardianship of Francis Lazare and Henry Lazare, Emily Lazare filed her letters of guardianship.

In the matter of the guardianship of Frazier D. Parker and Wm. T. Parker, minor heirs of Josephine Parker, deceased, letters of guardianship were granted to Dyma T. Parker.

The balance of the day was occupied by reading and approving the records. The court, before adjourning, will cite all administrators, executors and guardians who are in default in making their annual or final reports, or filing any other papers required by law. It would therefore be well for parties interested to make a note of this.

LOOK TO THE POOR!—The winter approaches with its cold blasts, and may the Lord help us to stretch forth a hand to relieve the sufferings of the poor! We are all too careless. Our eyes do not look after those who need—the poor who are all ways with us. Let us reform this carelessness, and be active in works of charity; and that this activity may be effective it should be organized activity. Who will step forward and call into an organized society the charitably disposed people of Cairo, so that during the winter now shaking our windows and doors with icy breath we may be ready to promptly and with effect respond to the demands of humanity in relieving the wants and driving away the distress of the needy? Read the following plaintive appeal, by Anna L. Ruth, and our word for it you will be in a mood to enter upon the good work we have suggested. The poem is a gem of its kind:

THE ELEVENTH HOUR.
Whist, sir! Would you please to speak aye
And sit ye down there by the fire?
She sleeps, sir, so light and so restless,
She hears every step on the floor.
What ails her? God knows! she's been
For months, and the heat drives her wild;
The summer has wasted and worn her
Till she's like the ghost of a child.

All I have? Yes, she is, and God help me!
I'll three little darlings beside,
As pure as ivory and as true,
But when by the winter's cold and died,
What was it that took them, you're asking?
Why, poverty, sure, and no doubt;
They perished for food and fresh air, sir,
Like flowers dried up in a draught.

It was dreadful to lose them? Ah, was it!
I would like my heart strings would break
But there's days when I'd want and I'd sorrow
I'm thankful they're gone for their sake.
The father? Well, sir, I'll tell you that!
It's a foul tongue that lowers its own;
But what did the strikes and the liquor,
I'd better be struggling alone.

Do I want to keep this man? The darlings!
The last and dearest of all!
Share you never a father yourself, sir,
Or you wouldn't be asking at all.
What is that? Milk and food for the baby?
A doctor and medicine free?
You're busting out all the sick children,
An' poor, toiling mothers, like me?

God bless you, and them that have sent you!
A new life you've given me so.
A shure, sir, won't you look in the cradle
At the colleen you've saved, 'fore you go?
O, mother of mercies! have pity!
O, darlings, why do you cry and wail?
Dead! dead! an' the 'help in the doorway!
Too late! O, my baby! Too late!

THE GRAIN TRADE OF NEW ORLEANS.
—The New Orleans Times says that not one in one hundred of the people of that city have any idea of the extraordinary and unparalleled success of the grain movement, as not only inaugurated but thoroughly in progress through that port. The Times then continues:

"Hundreds of thousands of bushels of corn have weekly passed through the port of New Orleans in bulk for the foreign markets of the world. Steamships and rail tonnage have gone from here almost daily, and are still going, and our attention has hardly been attracted to it. The men who have worked to achieve this result have been few, but they have been thoroughly in earnest, as will be seen when we state that from the actual figures of the month in which, according to those croakers who profess to know everything, grain was to spoil, to bust, to go, and heaven and our rivals only know what they did not predict—sixty-six full cargoes of bulk grain have gone from this port to Europe with an amount of one million eighteen thousand and six hundred and ninety-three bushels (1,018,693). And every bushel of this grain has arrived in the most perfect order at its port of destination, and in most cases has sold beyond the price of grain of the same grade from New York at the same time of sailing. We know of no instance here of a sailing vessel netting upwards of eleven hundred pounds sterling after leaving our harbor, and was only 25 days on her trip to Liverpool. Not one single English steamship has cleared from our port since July, that has not taken bulk grain; and would we have believed, one year ago, that tonnage for bulk grain, at the ruling rates, would not be obtainable in New Orleans? Yet this is the fact. Two vessels load at our elevator to-morrow. Our two last steamships, the Louisiana and the Belgian, were loaded last Saturday. Today, we are told, two large tons of bulk grain, for shipment abroad, are due.

Does this look like stagnation? We also learn that the elevator company proposes to erect a large and extensive flour mill in connection with their property, capable of making 2,500 barrels daily, bringing their wheat from Tennessee and Illinois after connecting their elevator with the Jackson and Texas roads by a track, to run care to and from
